Summer Music Camps

Although this may seem early to start thinking about summer camps, many offer early bird specials. These camps employ highly qualified music educators and directors. Your child will come back with great friends and an appetite for creating quality music, which leads to more practice and a higher level of dedication.

University of the Pacific (my alma mater!) holds an exceptional music camp. Campers stay in the dorms. Great way to whet your child's appetite for college!

Stanislaus State University holds another fabulous camp program. Campers stay in luxurious dorm rooms.

Cazadero Music Camp Located in the beautiful Russian River in Sonoma, campers are in a real camp setting.
